Baptized into Christ

Matthew 28:18-20; Romans 6:3-4 (KJV)

Scripture

Matthew 28:18-20

18 And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth.

19 Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: 20 Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

Romans 6:3-4

3 Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death? 4 Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life.

Discussion questions

1. What do all Christians agree about baptism, according to today's passages?

2. Why do Reformed churches connect baptism with circumcision?

3. What does Romans 6 say baptism should mean for the way we live this week?

4. How can we hold our own convictions about baptism while showing love to Christians who practise it differently?

This week

If you were baptized as a child, thank God this week for his covenant faithfulness to you and your family, and make sure your own faith rests on Christ. If you have children or grandchildren, pray for them by name as children of the covenant.
