The Mind of Christ

Philippians 2:1-11 (KJV)

Scripture

Philippians 2:1-11

[1] If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies, [2] Fulfil ye my joy, that ye be likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind. [3] Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves. [4] Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others. [5] Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: [6] Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: [7] But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men: [8] And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. [9] Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: [10] That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; [11] And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Discussion questions

1. How would you define humility in your own words?

2. Why is humility necessary for unity in a church or a family?

3. What does Jesus' example show us about what humility costs?

4. How does knowing that God exalts the humble free us to serve without recognition?

This week

Do one act of service this week that no one will notice or thank you for. In a conversation, try to ask more questions than you answer and focus on the other person's concerns. Pray verse 5 each morning: "Let this mind be in me, which was also in Christ Jesus."
