Gifts of the Spirit

1 Corinthians 12:1-11 (KJV)

Scripture

1 Corinthians 12:1-11

[1] Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant. [2] Ye know that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these dumb idols, even as ye were led. [3] Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God calleth Jesus accursed: and that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost. [4] Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit. [5] And there are differences of administrations, but the same Lord. [6] And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God which worketh all in all. [7] But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal. [8] For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit; [9] To another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit; [10] To another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to another divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues: [11] But all these worketh that one and the selfsame Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will.

Discussion questions

1. What do all Christians agree about spiritual gifts, according to this passage?

2. Why do Wesleyans put the fruit of the Spirit (love, joy, peace …) ahead of the extraordinary gifts?

3. What gifts has God given you, and how could you use one this week to serve others?

4. How can we hold our own convictions about the gifts while loving believers who see this differently?

This week

Pray this week for the Holy Spirit to fill you with love for God and others, and ask him which gifts he would have you use to build up your church. Read Galatians 5:22-23 each day and ask where the Spirit is growing his fruit in you.
