Thy Word Is a Lamp

Psalm 119:97-105 (KJV)

Scripture

Psalm 119:97-105

97 O how love I thy law! it is my meditation all the day. 98 Thou through thy commandments hast made me wiser than mine enemies: for they are ever with me. 99 I have more understanding than all my teachers: for thy testimonies are my meditation. 100 I understand more than the ancients, because I keep thy precepts. 101 I have refrained my feet from every evil way, that I might keep thy word. 102 I have not departed from thy judgments: for thou hast taught me. 103 How sweet are thy words unto my taste! yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth! 104 Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way. 105 Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.

Outline

1. Love God's word and keep it near

O how love I thy law! it is my _____ all the day.

Meditation means turning God's word over in the _____ throughout the day.

Read: Psalm 119:97; Psalm 1:1-2; Joshua 1:8

2. God's word gives wisdom for life

Through thy precepts I get _____.

Spiritual knowledge grows as we _____ God's word.

Read: Psalm 119:98-104; 2 Timothy 3:15-17; James 1:22-25

3. A lamp for each step

Thy word is a _____ unto my feet.

God's word gives enough light for the _____ step.

Read: Psalm 119:105; Proverbs 6:23; 2 Peter 1:19

Discussion questions

1. What is the difference between reading the Bible and meditating on it?

2. The writer says Scripture made him wiser than his teachers. In what ways can God's word give wisdom that education alone cannot?

3. Why do you think the writer links obedience with understanding (vv. 100-104)?

4. When has God's word been a "lamp" for a next step in your life?

This week

Choose one verse from today's passage. Write it on a card, and read it at breakfast, lunch and bedtime every day this week. Also set a regular daily time and place to read Scripture, even if it is just one chapter.
